Not to say your products are bad, but I do highly recommend them to people among a few other brands.. G Skill may use IC chips from another manufacturer, but the ICs are all tested/sorted by G.. If it's 'just marketing' and replacing stickers, there would be many, many more brands of RAM that you can't even imagine.. Thank you GSKILL SUPPORT Well, maybe I was vague in my last post You don't actually make the integrated circuits(which is made by companies like Micron, Elpidia, Samsung, etc) for your memory which is the an extremely crucial part as you know, and obviously and helps determine the quality of said product.
